

John Naimo, CPA

Auditor-Controller

County of Los Angeles

John Naimo is the Auditor-Controller for Los Angeles County and is responsible for overseeing a department with 622 budgeted positions and an annual operating budget of $95 million. The Department of Auditor-Controller is responsible for establishing County fiscal and internal control policies and procedures; administering the County payroll; conducting audits and fraud investigations; monitoring social services contracts; performing mandated property tax functions; disbursing warrants to vendors and public assistance recipients; and managing the County's enterprise financial and payroll systems. Mr. Naimo also oversees the issuance of the Los Angeles County Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, Taxpayers' Guide, and Single Audit Report.

He has over 35 years of experience with the County Auditor-Controller. Mr. Naimo serves as a member of the County's Claims Board and Deferred Compensation Plan Committees. He also assists in representing the County before bond rating agencies and County bond investors.

Mr. Naimo holds a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern California and is a Certified Public Accountant. He is also a member of the Government Finance Officers Association, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and Association of Government Accountants.